ELECTION BILL ADVANCED BY 1 VOTE MARGIN

Chicago Democrats Will Attempt To Block Measure

By Robert P. Howard,
Associated Press Staff Writer.
Springfield, Ill., Feb. 26.—(P)—The legislative effort to require permanent registration of Chicago voters today saw another victory for Republicans and Horner Democrats, who advanced the election reform bills in the Senate by a one vote margin.

Spokesmen for the Chicago Democratic organization were still confident, however, that they could block passage of the controversial measures when the special sessions return to work next week.

The Senate vote was 21 to 20 to advance to second reading the Schnackenberg bills for permanent registration in Chicago and the nine downstate cities having election commissions. Governor Horner placed the issue before the third special session in retaliation. Chicago Democrats said against the political opposition of the Kelly-Nash Democratic organization.

Prof. T. V. Smith of the University of Chicago, a Democratic senator, took the lead in the debate that saw the advancement to second reading of the bills that passed the House yesterday.

"These are the most important measures from the point of view of stability of Democratic government since I've been a member of the Senate," Smith said. "They are agreed to by every Democrat and Republican who has an interest in honest government."

He talked about agrarianism, which he identified as a political disease avoiding open settlement of important issues with public discussion and urged that the bill should not be referred to the Senate elections committee.

Chairman Peter P. Kielminski of the elections committee, one of the Chicago opponents of the bills, in return made an attack upon Smith.

Seven downstate Democrats voted with the Chicagoans, arguing that Governor Horner did not support permanent registration in the 1935 regular session, when he expected the second term of office in the Kelly-Nash organization.

"Whatever corruption exists in Chicago, Henry Horner has said the benefit of in the past," said James O. Monroe, Collinsville Democrat. "This is a political issue only."

Smith said the opposition to permanent registration is identified with politicians who have had income tax cases settled and Sanitary District indictments quashed. He did not name them.

LAUNCH SHIP

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 26.—(P)—The U. S. Navy, a destroyer named after a Revolutionary War naval hero, was launched this afternoon at the Norfolk navy yard. The vessel is being built at a cost of $4,000,000 and is about 80 per cent completed.

Bruno's Counsel Will Seek Return Of Dr. J. F. Condon

C. Lloyd Fisher Would Question "Jafsie" He Declares

By Samuel G. Blackman,
Associated Press Staff Writer.
Trenton, N. J., Feb. 26.—(P)—C. Lloyd Fisher, chief counsel for Bruno Richard Hauptmann, reiterated today he will seek the return of Dr. John F. (Jafsie) Condon for questioning before the week of March 30 when Hauptmann is doomed to die.

He will suggest the recall of Condon to Attorney General David T. Wientz, Fisher asserted.

"Wientz says it (the kidnapping) was a one-man job," Fisher said. "Condon says at least two men. I don't see how the attorney general can say it is unimportant. In my opinion there isn't a thing he can do except to call Condon."

The attorney general, who has announced he would confer today with Prosecutor Anthony M. Hauck, Jr., of Hunterdon county, and Col. H. Norman Schwarzkopf, head of the state police, on the most recent developments in Governor Harold G. Hoffman's activities, decided his private legal business was too pressing to do anything today.

Tomorrow, if it is convenient for Hauck and Schwarzkopf, he will meet them in his Perth Amboy office. Hauck has "heard" he will be superceded as prosecutor unless he starts perjury action against Millard White, Sourland's lawyer, who testified for the state he saw Hauptmann near the Lindbergh estate about the time of the kidnapping.

Floods Waters Force Hundreds To High Ground

Rescuers Carry Scores Of Persons From Marooned Houses In Row Boats

Chicago, Feb. 26.—(P)—Flood waters surging from the ice clogged streams forced hundreds of persons to flee to higher ground today.

Rising tributaries of the Monongahela and Allegheny rivers in Pennsylvania inundated streets in many communities and routed several hundred lowlanders from their homes. Rescuers carried scores of the stranded from marooned houses in row boats.

More than 100 families left their homes in Buena Vista after a Wild Cat Creek ice gorge broke. Charters creek went over its banks near Canonsburg, causing the evacuation of 20 persons.

Big floods sweeping down the Wheeling Creek Valley in Ohio wrecked the general store at Barton and put the water pumping plant out of commission. Pemberville experienced its worst inundation since 1913. Dynamite blasted a jam west of Bridgeport after 35 homes had been flooded. Many residents of low lands in Coshocton and Muskingum counties prepared to leave.

Upstream rains threatened serious floods along the Wabash and White rivers in Indiana. Ravenswood, resort town near Indianapolis, was under water.

A section of Keyser, W. Va., was flooded when three ice gorges in New creek resisted explosives.

Flood warnings for the Mississippi below Keokuk, Ia., were issued. A substantial rise along the Wabash in Illinois was anticipated.

Small streams were out of their banks in the vicinity of Quincy, Ill. The Illinois and Fox rivers receded after many families had fled from their homes.

Heavy snows in South Dakota, Wisconsin, upper Michigan, Minnesota and northwestern Iowa hampered transportation. Many highways were blocked. The fall measure more than a foot in Minnesota.

Believe Three Dead In Slide

Wallace, Idaho, Feb. 26.—(P)—Three men were believed swept to their death in a passenger coach of a Northern Pacific train late today by a snowslide in the Couer D'Alene mountains east of here.

The avalanche carried the coach of the Missoula-Wallace train from the rails and left it a twisted wreck. The snow struck five miles east of Lookout Summit and a half mile west of the Borax Tunnel about 3 p. m. (7 p. m. C.S.T.). It piled up 40 feet deep.

The missing: Thomas Byall, Missoula, Mont., conductor.

F. A. McLean, Missoula, brakeman. A passenger identified by the engineer only as "a former Wallace bartender."

POSTPONE HEARING

Chester, Ill., Feb. 25.—(P)—Prison authorities were notified today that a hearing at Springfield on an application for parole for Addison J. Throop, convicted in St. Clair county on a tax graft charge, had been postponed until the May term of the state board of paroles and pardons. The delay, the notice said, was to allow for further investigation.

VETO OF SEED LOAN BILL MAY CAUSE REVOLT

Sen. Robinson Advises Against Further Action

By D. Harold Oliver,
Associated Press Staff Writer.
Washington, Feb. 26.—(P)—A threat of a revolt in the Senate over President Roosevelt's veto of the $50,000,000 seed loan bill today brought a speech from Majority Leader Robinson advising against efforts toward re-enactment.

The executive declined to sign the measure with an explanation that his financial program had not taken it into consideration and that Congress had failed to provide revenue for the additional drain on the treasury.

On Mr. Roosevelt's assurance, however, that he would order a transfer of work relief funds to aid farmers still in distress from "unforeseen disasters," Robinson, who had hoped for presidential approval, advised against further action.

But the bill's author, Chairman Smith (D-S. C.), of the agriculture committee, said he would insist, nevertheless, on a vote to override because "the need for the money today is as great as it was in the past."

Robinson's speech generally was regarded as killing any chances for passage over the veto. The Arkansas senator also expressed hope that federal expenditures and loans for all forms of emergency relief would soon be ended.

Action on the conference report adjusting differences between Senate and House on the $500,000,000 soil conservation-subsidy bill was held up until tomorrow to permit printing of the conference agreement.

The House, which today completed general debate on the $161,863,147 supply bill for the agriculture department, will act first on the soil bill. Then the Senate will decide whether to accept the conference report. No strong opposition was in sight in either branch.

Guard Building Of English Yacht For America's Cup Race

Tom Sopwith's New Chal- lenger Will Be All Steel; 20 Tons Heavier

By Roger Greene,
Associated Press Foreign Staff.
Gosport, England, Feb. 26.—(P)—Built on the historic quay where the Pilgrim fathers embarked to join the Mayflower, T. O. M. Sopwith's new yacht Endeavour II is taking shape here amid strictest secrecy.

Guardians posted at every entrance when the keel of the big challenge, which will cross the Atlantic to compete for the America's cup next year, was laid down.

Word leaked out, however, that the keel weighs approximately 90 tons, or about ten tons heavier than the keel of the Endeavour I which went down to defeat against Harold K. Vanderbilt's Rainbow in September, 1934.

The new challenger, it was revealed, will be built to the full "J" class limit, under rules sanctioned by the American cup deed of gift, and it will be all steel with a high tensile steel mast of new and original design.

It may be recalled, in this connection, that it was the steel mast on Vanderbilt's old Enterprise that "broke" Sir Thomas Lipton's heart in 1930 when the Irish Baronet lost four straight races with his Shamrock V.

Endeavour II is being built in the Camper and Nicholson yard here close alongside the old shed where two previous challengers, Shamrock IV in 1914, and Endeavour I in 1933, were built. In excavating the base of the fit on which the new craft is being constructed, workmen came upon the age-old quay steps where the Pilgrim fathers, enroute from Gosport to Southampton where the Mayflower lay in waiting, embarked.

The new Endeavour will be 87 feet on the waterline, compared with 83 feet for Endeavour I and some twenty tons heavier than the old challenger.

Thomas Cummings, acting supervisor of the narcotic division of the treasury department, stated his agents could find no substantiation at Joliet of stories of convicts that narcotics in the past were available for cash.

Named Chief Of Insular Police

San Juan, Puerto Rico, Feb. 26.—(P)—Lt. J. M. Esteves, a graduate of the United States Military Academy at West Point, was named chief of the insular police today succeeding Col. E. Francis Riggs, assassinated Sunday.

Esteves is also a colonel in the Puerto Rican National Guard.

Riggs, together with Francisco Velez Ortiz, district police chief, were shot down during a Nationalist riot in a cafe at Utuado.

Officials began an investigation of Nationalist activities following the assassinations.

ARE IN ARREARS

Ottawa, Feb. 26.—(P)—A government statement in the House of Commons today said 21 nations are in arrears in their annual payments for upkeep of the League of Nations.

Dust Storms In Oklahoma Cause Heavy Damage

Many Farmers May Be Forced To Seek Relief From Government

Guymon, Okla., Feb. 26.—(P)—Dust storms, sweeping away another wheat crop, will force three-fourths of the farmers of Cimarron county to seek relief from the Federal Rural Reconstruction Administration, government leading agency representatives estimated today.

They said another crop failure in Texas and Beaver counties would leave one-half the farm population there in the same plight.

The federal loan men met here in another dust storm, the fourth in as many days to blow across the North-western Oklahoma Panhandle.

Meanwhile, in Washington, two agencies moved to minimize further damage from dust storms as spring winds once more began to whirl over 5,000,000 acres of arid land in five western states.

The Rural Resettlement Administration announced plans for a broad land-use survey while the soil conservation service, through one of its directors, appealed to affected farmers in Kansas, Colorado, New Mexico, Texas and Oklahoma, to make greater use of corrective practices evolved in demonstration projects.

The agriculture department, meanwhile, prepared to put into immediate use a $2,000,000 appropriation for emergency work in the dust bowl. Through the extension service, needy farmers probably will be given funds to renovate and operate their lister plows, on the theory that proper listing while not a permanent expedient, will assist materially in reducing dust damage until a long-term program becomes operative.

The appropriation was approved yesterday by conferees on the agriculture department appropriation bill.

Time Change Is Opposed By Mart Men In Chicago

Claim They Would Suffer "Confusion And Losses" If Petition Granted

Chicago, Feb. 26.—(P)—Representatives of the grain and livestock markets joined other opponents of a local change from Central to Eastern standard time today with the claim they would suffer "confusion and losses" if the Interstate Commerce Commission granted a petition for the proposal.

H. R. Parks of the Chicago Livestock Exchange, and Fred H. Clifton, secretary of the Chicago Board of Trade, testified at the hearing before Commissioner Clyde E. Atchison.

These effects they asserted would result from an order for railroads to conform to the city's new time, effective by ordinance next Sunday.

Livestock and grain markets throughout the west would be "disorganized" by the hour's time difference which would then exist between Chicago and them.

Shipments would arrive in Chicago an hour later, interfering with "advantageous disposition" in the case of grain, and missing stockyard schedules in the case of livestock.

The delay would cause more grain and cattle to be held over from one day to another, involving questions of feed and animal care in the stockyards.

Railroad yards would be congested by delayed shipments.

As a result of all this, farmers' and dealers' profits would be cut.

Deny Drug, Liquor Traffic In Joliet

Chicago, Feb. 26.—(P)—Federal officials said tonight reports of traffic in liquor and narcotics among inmates of Stateville penitentiary at Joliet have been discovered to be without foundation.

Thomas Cummings, acting supervisor of the narcotic division of the treasury department, stated his agents could find no substantiation at Joliet of stories of convicts that narcotics in the past were available for cash.

A similar report was made by E. C. Yellowley, head of the alcohol tax unit, who said his agents labeled as "gossip" stories that prisoners at one time could purchase alcohol.

The federal officers entered the prison investigation after inmates last week told members of the governor's special prison commission that until a year ago liquor and narcotics were obtainable "for a price."

Metz, France, Feb. 26.—(P)—A man suspected of being a spy and described by police as a Czechoslovakian engineer, was arrested at Thionville, in the fortified zone along the German frontier, today.

Police said they found on his person a questionnaire concerning fortifications. They indicated other arrests might follow.

Gilbert McQueen of New Berlin was a business visitor in the city yesterday.

TAX PROGRAM GUARDED BY OFFICIALS

Appropriations Must Be Covered By New Taxes

Washington, Feb. 26.—(P)—With a still-guarded tax program in formulation at the White House, Congress tonight pondered the implications of a reiterated presidential warning that appropriations not included in the budget should be covered by new taxes.

President Roosevelt's statement to this effect was included in a message vetoing a bill to provide $50,000,000 for seed loans. In it he noted specifically that the "financial program" included no such outlay and that Congress had approved it "without making provision for any revenue to cover such loans."

His words stirred immediate speculation as to whether the forthcoming tax plan would call for new revenues to meet, partially at least, the cost of paying the soldiers' bonus, ordered by Congress over the president's disapproval and not included in the budget.

The chief executive, meanwhile, preserved the secrecy which has surrounded the preparation of his suggestions. Nevertheless, in the absence of any word to the contrary, House leaders continued to keep tomorrow night open for a White House tax conference, as the president suggested a week ago.

The day also saw Secretary Morgenthau go over the details of the treasury's March financing program—$1,000,000,000 for retiring maturities and as much new money as may be needed—with the open market committee of the federal reserve system.

While details were lacking, he was understood to have outlined the character of the new securities which will be issued. The committee, formerly composed of governors of the reserve banks, will be superseded March 1 by a committee dominated by the reserve board.

In the House, Representative Taber (R-N.Y.) asserted there was an "absolute necessity" for raising taxes, adding that "never in all history has there been a situation where the president has so failed to meet his responsibilities."

Test Class Pupils Vote Against AAA Before Educators

Demonstration Is Before Na- tional Educational Association

St. Louis, Feb. 26.—(P)—A layman and an educator agreed today, after watching a class room demonstration, that controversial contemporary questions can be discussed in the public schools without prejudicing or propagandizing the students.

The experiments were watched by several thousand members of the department of superintendence of the National Educational Association. The department has announced a nationwide fight for freedom of speech in the classroom.

The demonstration consisted of a discussion of the recent decisions of the supreme court. A classroom was set up on the convention stage and 24 boys and girls from a St. Louis high school, with Dr. Roy W. Hatch, head of the New Jersey State Teachers' college as instructor, joined in the debate.

All angles of the high court's recent momentous decisions were explained with the various governmental implications.

Louis P. Benet, Manchester, N. H., superintendent of schools, speaking for the educators, praised the demonstration as proof "controversial issues can be safely handled in the classrooms with positive educational benefit to the pupils."

A. L. Threlkeld, superintendent of schools at Denver, was elected president of the National Education Association's department of superintendence by vote of its active members today. He will take office tomorrow.

Jose H. Mason, superintendent of schools at Canton, Ohio, was elected second vice president, and J. C. Cochran, superintendent of schools at San Antonio, Tex., was chosen a member of the executive committee.

FLYER KILLED

Shreveport, La., Feb. 26.—(P)—Falling to come out of a long dive toward a target during gunnery practice today, Captain Karl G. E. Gimmier crashed to his death in a single seater army airplane in an area outside the flying field.

Captain Gimmier, a pilot of the first pursuit group of Selfridge Field, Mich., was bearing down for an approach to the target when his plane went into a spin and plummeted into the ground from 600 feet.

APPROVE CONTRACT

Chicago, Feb. 26.—(P)—Approval of a recommended $65,205 contract to the Evans Construction Co., Springfield, for construction of the McLernand school in Springfield was announced by the State Public Works Administration offices here today.

Martial Law is Still in Force in Tokyo; Statesmen Try to Form New Cabinet

By the Associated Press.
Martial law was still in force in Tokyo Thursday after an attempted military coup in which three government leaders were killed, and Japan's surviving statesmen sought to form a new cabinet.

The government said order had been restored, but guards patrolled the palace grounds and other parts of the city. Warships were at strategic points.

The venerable officials, meeting with the emperor in the imperial palace sought to organize a cabinet after Fumi Goto, who accepted the premiership temporarily, resigned because of inability to form a government.

The bloody uprising brought death to Premier Keisuke Okada, former Premier Viscount Makoto Saito and Gen. Jotaro Watanabe, chief of military education. Koreyko Takahashi, military minister, was said by the Domei News Agency to have been killed, although the government said he was alive. The agency also stated

Admiral Kentaro Suzuki, lord chamberlain of the imperial court, was seriously wounded and would die.

Experienced observers said the army revolution sought to establish a military dictatorship, eliminating statesmen who blocked their path.

Dispatches from Shanghai reported the Domei Agency stated that rebellious forces, numbering 900, had begun to withdraw peacefully from government buildings which they Wednesday.

Every major world power, in disturbed Europe and neutral America, watched the developing situation with anxiety, as also did ancient China.

The Japanese government claimed the situation was under control, but two fleets were called in from the high seas for duty in Tokyo and Osaka. Martial law was proclaimed many hours after the revolt broke out.

Young Fascist-minded army officers who led the attempted coup at dawn Wednesday said they wanted "to remove corrupt influences from around the throne."

PRISONER ATTEMPTS TO ESCAPE; IS SHOT DOWN

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 26.—(P)—Deputy Sheriff Ellis Kohl today shot and wounded Richard Rhodes, one of the trio indicted in connection with 14 robberies and abductions, as he attempted to escape.

Rhodes ran across the street when Kohl stopped his automobile at the county jail after returning Rhodes from a hospital where he received treatment for a leg wound allegedly suffered in an attempted holdup at Mulberry Grove last week.

Kohl warned Rhodes to stop and then fired once, wounding him in the side. Physicians said his condition was not serious.

Two other young men, Roy Lane and Albert Johnson, also are under indictment on charges involving "crime tours" of the city February 15 and 16.

Bridge Threatened At Chandlerville; Stop J. & H. Service

Waters Rise To Danger Level At Beardstown; Land Under Water

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 26.—(P)—Steadily rising streams threatened Central Illinois tonight with flood damage.

The Sangamon river at Springfield was five feet above the normal level while at Chandlerville the river was 12 feet higher than normal. Several thousand acres of wooded lowlands were under water.

Service over the Jacksonville and Havana railroad was ordered suspended when the bridge at Chandlerville became weakened by the high waters. Twenty-eight bridge pilings were swept away.

Dynamite was used when Illinois river ice gorges threatened a bridge at Havana.

The Illinois river at Beardstown reached the 12-foot stage, four feet below flood level, and threatened thousands of acres of Sangamon Valley land.

UNIVERSITY WOMEN TO MEET SATURDAY; WILL HEAR DR. HAZEL KYRK

Consumer research and consumer education are themes much under discussion today among people interested in our economic status. In line with such thought, Dr. Hazel Kyrk, speaker for the A. A. U. W. meeting to be held Saturday afternoon, has recently written two very thought-provoking articles in the Annals of the American Academy of Political and Social Science.

"Wastes in the Consumer's Dollar" is the subject of one article in which are discussed unwise buying, payment for undesired goods and services, misrepresentation, competitive wastes and monopoly.

"Who Shall Educate the Consumer?" is the subject of a very recent article in which Dr. Kyrk deals with distinctive consumer interests, aspects of consumer education, consumption standards, the school as directing consumption, sales promotion and kindred topics.

The subject of Dr. Kyrk's talk before the Jacksonville Branch on Saturday afternoon in Baxter Hall is "Consumer's Stake in Public Policy."

BRAZIL REPLIES
Rio De Janeiro, Feb. 26.—(P)—The foreign ministry announced tonight President Getulio Vargas has written to President Roosevelt that the United States may count on the "loyal and frank cooperation" of Brazil in the plan for an inter-American peace parley proposed by the American executive.

Duqueno, Ill., Feb. 26.—(P)—Hermon Ahlers, 71, prominent Perry county farmer, died today of pneumonia less than 36 hours after the death of his brother, William F. Ahlers, 75. Perry county game warden and Democratic politician.

FORMER MAYOR CHAMPION OF HONEST BALLOT

William H. Thompson Will Come Out Of Retirement

By Robert M. Yoder,
Associated Press Staff Writer.
Chicago, Feb. 26.—(P)—Former Mayor William Hale "Big Bill" Thompson came out of retirement tonight and back into the political ring, where for 16 years he was a headliner.

Thompson, who withdrew from the Illinois political scene in 1931, reappeared as the champion of "honest elections."

In his first interview in five years, since he was defeated for a fourth term as mayor in 1931, Thompson said:

"I've made up my mind to go to do what I did in 1915—to help bring back the Republican party."

He will limit his activities to the state, he added, taking no part in the presidential campaign.

To reports he would support Senator William E. Borah of Idaho for the Republican nomination, Thompson said:

"I've always liked Borah. I like his fight to uphold the constitution and to keep us out of foreign entanglements, so that the American mother's babies would not be used for cannon fodder."

"But Knox Col. Frank Knox, publisher of the Chicago Daily News is a local candidate. With these two in the running, I'm not taking any part in the national fight."

"I do believe that things are leading toward a Republican comeback."

Thompson's chief interest, he said, is in pushing the candidacy of Thomas V. Sullivan, a school board attorney during Thompson's last term as mayor, for nomination as attorney general.

"I hear it said that as many as 300,000 fraudulent votes are counted in Chicago," Thompson said.

"Almost all the Republican candidates for governor have come to see me, and they agree the problem the Republican party has to solve is that one."

"My point is that the attorney general has the power to stop it, and I've got the right candidate for attorney general—Tommy Sullivan."

It is a startling situation. Why, elections are the great safety valve in this country.

"You take it from Bill Thompson that vote stealing has got to stop!"

Governor Horner, a Democrat, now opposed by the Chicago Democratic machine, is pushing a bill for permanent registration of voters, with Republican support.

U. S. Air Experts Experiment With Sub-Stratosphere

Hope To Speed Mail Service And Develop Ocean Flying

By Melbourne Christerson,
Associated Press Staff Writer.
Washington, Feb. 26.—(P)—Government air experts are seeking to develop sub-stratosphere flying so that airplanes can span the continent in five to eight hours.

Private industry is aiding commerce department, weather bureau and postoffice officials in planning new equipment and charting air currents for safe and swift flying 25,000 feet above the earth.

J. C. Edgerton, bureau of air commerce expert, said today that development of efficient compressors to keep air pressure within the planes constant at all times appeared to be the main problem.

That field is being explored now, along with development of engines, propellers and fuselages capable of withstanding the strain of sub-stratosphere winds.

At the same time, the weather bureau is charting upper level wind currents. Its scientists are working on radio balloons to test wind velocity, temperature, humidity and other factors vital in aviation.

"Flying at 25,000 to 30,000 feet," Edgerton said, "will increase the speed of a plane 28 per cent, all other factors being equal."

"Safety and comfort is what we are emphasizing."

"The air might be bumpy at 15,000 feet. But ascending to 25,000 a pilot generally will find better winds, steady and stronger. Flying at that height he usually can escape bad storms."

"Planes equipped to fly at that height will

Education Ideals

Educators in annual convention at St. Louis this week have been given a resume of modern ideals in education, some of which appear to be good if they are rightly handled. It is proposed to fit the younger generation for practical life by giving the future citizens a bird's eye view of the problems they may expect to meet when they get out of school. The crux of the teaching is that if a boy is to successfully solve his problems, he must know them as they are.

The educators have cited some examples. They contend that if young people are to judge the value of communism, fascism, industrial democracy or any other system, they must know the system, which of course gives an excuse for teaching all these theories in the schools. If a teacher is impartial and unbiased in his political and economic opinions, he may do this without exerting an undue influence to turn out young communists or fascists. But if he is biased, the teaching may fall far short of what it is intended to do, and in fact accomplish the opposite result.

The educators were also told that if young people are to avoid bad investments of their savings, they should be taught concerning the sharp practices often used in the world of real life. That is a practical idea, but the teacher should be careful and not leave his pupils with the impression that all men are thieves. Young people should be taught the truth about the market crash of 1929, the educators say. If anybody really knows the truth, there are some of the rest of us who would be interested in the information. We have always wondered about it.

Strange Politics

The sudden overthrow of the Okada government in Japan through the simple expedient of assassinating the premier and two of his aides is certainly strange politics. Last week the people of Japan gave the Okada cabinet a vote of confidence. But the strong militarist group did not like the outcome of the election, which left in power those not as nationalistic as seemed necessary.

Consequently young army officers organized a revolt and killed off the offending high officials of state, which means the formation of a new government, probably more favorable to the militarists. Thus the will of the people has been neatly defeated.

The revolt is supposed to have originated in a unit which had been ordered out of Tokyo for service in Japan's Asiatic puppet state of Manchukuo. It is believed the soldiers did not want to go to the continent, and manifested their displeasure by murdering some government dignitaries. It would seem that Japan lives largely by the pleasure of the military, which puts it on the level with some of the fieriest republics in Central America.

The wise plan of having a small standing army, with a second line of defense of citizen soldiers who are trained, but who do not live in barracks, seems even more prudent when we view the experience of other countries with large military units. The United States has always been able to raise a large army when it was needed. By keeping its regular army small this country avoids the dangers of a military dictatorship.

Cash Relief

The distribution of cash relief will begin in this county Mar. 1. This means that clients will be given a definite cash amount each month, which they may spend as they please. There will be no more grocery or coal orders. Those on relief will receive it in cash and will make their own purchases.

Thus the responsibility of actually spending the money is transferred from the relief administration to the clients. Those who are on relief must make the money they get go as far as possible and must plan their own economic existence. While they will still receive dole, it will be cash, not necessary supplies. Such necessities they must provide for themselves.

Upon their ability to spend the allowance wisely will depend their living. That they must understand at the start. If they find the fund too small, they should seek work and secure, if possible, an income that will be ample.

Science Sets Hard Pace

Pity the naval authorities who have to keep their establishments up to par in a world which scientific and technical development is constantly changing.

Rear Admiral Sir Murray Sueter told the British Parliament the other day that England's most prized naval bases have been rendered vulnerable by development of the airplane.

The fleet could be bombed out of Gibraltar by the Italians, he said, and the great home bases like Rosyth, Portsmouth, Sheerness, Chatham, and Devonport could be rendered untenable by German planes.

On the development and fortification of these bases England has expended untold millions. Until recently, they were supposed to be invulnerable to any attack—havens where fleets might lie in perfect security.

Now, according to this authority, they are nearly as defenseless as so many open roadsteads.

Naval science is infinitely more complicated than it was a generation ago. An admiral's lot these days is certainly not one of serene and unworried contentment.

SO THEY SAY

It is now time for a great wrong to be righted.

—Dr. Frederick A. Cook, renewing claim to having discovered North Pole in 1909.

I always feel that a written speech can never be a good speech. The rhythms of the spoken word and the written word are entirely different.

Behind The Scenes In Washington

Four Vital Rulings Are Hanging Fire—Guffey Coal Act, Securities Law, Low Cost Housing, and Aid for Municipal Power Plants Head Measures Awaiting Decision

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
Journal and Courier Washington Correspondent

Washington.—The New Deal's legislation will be before the U. S. Supreme Court for at least another year.

The court seems certain to pass on four important measures before it recesses for the summer, whereas its decisions as to others will go over until after the presidential election.

The Guffey coal act, the securities act of 1933, federal low cost housing activities, and PWA financing of municipal power plants will come before the high tribunal within the next two or three months.

On their way through lower federal courts, but unlikely to be argued and decided here until next winter, are tests of the national labor relations act, the railroad pensions act, and the public utilities holding company act.

Cases involving the social security act, the new farm program, and the stock market act are expected to follow.

Guffey Act Up Soon

The Guffey coal conservation act will be argued soon. Fifty or more coal producers have sued for injunctions to prevent its enforcement and the primary issue is validity of its prohibitive tax on coal, designed to force observance of minimum price standards.

Constitutionally, the big issue is whether Congress, under the commerce clause, has the right to regulate the coal industry.

The case headed for the supreme court arises from the injunction suit brought by the Carter Coal Company, in which the District of Columbia court held the act's labor provisions unconstitutional, but sustained the tax and price provisions, to which plaintiff objected.

Whether the federal government has the power to lend and grant money to municipalities and counties for construction of public power plants is the issue in about fifty suits brought against Secretary Ickes and PWA by power companies saying no such right exists.

Congress' Right Involved

Another category of cases involving the spending power of Congress is represented in the government's appeal from a ruling of the circuit court in Louisville that the federal government's power to condemn property for public use didn't extend to condemnation of property for the ultimate use of private persons.

Attorneys for suing property owners in the Louisville case have contended that Congress in appropriating PWA money left an illegal amount of discretion to the president. Some government lawyers have feared that the court might for the first time lay down rigid rules for delegation of such discretion by Congress as to disposition of federal funds.

The 1933 act requiring registration of securities with the Securities and Exchange Commission is challenged by J. Edward Jones, a dealer in oil royalties, who is represented by James M. Beck.

Jones filed a registration statement for a security issue. The SEC found it faulty and ordered him to show cause why an order banning sale shouldn't be issued.

LENTER SPECIAL HOT CROSS BUNS
Delivered "HOT" FROM THE OVEN to your grocers. Thursday afternoon and Friday morning.

Jones defied the commission and has since lost his case in both the district and circuit courts, but still has hopes.

Utility Ruling May Come

There's a bare chance that either or both the holding company act and the railroad retirement act (pensions for railroad employees) may come up for an opinion at this time.

The latter is a congressional substitute for a previous retirement act declared unconstitutional in a 5-to-4 decision.

The "power trust," represented by John W. Davis, would like to see the court rule first on the basis of the opinion by Judge Coleman in Baltimore Federal District Court that the holding company act was "unconstitutional in its entirety."

Because of its peculiar origin, New Deal lawyers doubt whether the supreme court would take jurisdiction. Facing several score injunction suits, they are concentrating on their own court action demanding that the big Electric Bond & Share Co. be made to register with SEC. They believe this test case will be first to appear here for final adjudication.

The labor relations act is expected to come to the court through the Greyhound Bus Company case, scheduled for a hearing in March before Philadelphia circuit court.

The National Labor Relations Board demands that the court enforce its order for abolition of the bus concern's "company union" and for reinstatement of five union men discharged last July.

LUCKIES—A LIGHT SMOKE

OF RICH, RIPE-BODIED TOBACCO—"IT'S TOASTED"

Luckies are less acid

Recent chemical tests show* that other popular brands have an excess of acidity over Lucky Strike of from 53% to 100%.

*RESULTS VERIFIED BY INDEPENDENT CHEMICAL LABORATORIES AND RESEARCH GROUPS...

Over a period of years, certain basic advances have been made in the selection and treatment of cigarette tobaccos for Lucky Strike Cigarettes.

They include preliminary analyses of the tobaccos selected; use of center leaves; the higher heat treatment of tobacco ("toasting"); consideration of acid-alkaline balance, with consequent definite improvement in flavor; and controlled uniformity in the finished product.

All these combine to produce a superior cigarette—a modern cigarette, a cigarette made of rich, ripe-bodied tobaccos—A Light Smoke.

Morgan County Has Inch and a Quarter
Rain Tuesday Night

Creeks Out of Bank After Big Rain and Thaw of Ice and Snow

Morgan county and adjacent territory which has lain under a covering of ice and snow for several weeks received a washing at the hands of Mother Nature Tuesday night. One and one-quarter inches of rain fell between Tuesday night at 7 o'clock yesterday morning.

Streams already swollen by melting ice and snow were sent further out of banks as torrents of water raced down them. Water is running over the spillway at Lake Mauvasterre, and north of the dam the creek is out of bank. The water yesterday had not attained a stage high enough to interfere with traffic on the east hard road.

The weather observatory reported this to be the heaviest rain since last fall. Melting ice has put still more moisture into the ground, until all country roads are in very muddy condition.

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.

Laxatives are only makeshifts. A mere bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. straight to the point about your winter gasoline

In plain words it's old-fashioned to have winter starting troubles. (You needn't admit anything in company—because lots of people don't know there is hard starting any more.) But get a neighbor off to one side. Chances are he's an old regular on Winter Blend Conoco Bronze, or he is one of the thousands and thousands who changed to it these recent cold months. See if he doesn't say almost these words: "You always start up on Conoco Bronze; you start, that's all. No weather yet, around here, seems to make any difference. Maybe your car isn't new, but this stuff starts. You or I don't know how any gasoline is made, no matter what we're told. But when you don't have to grind the starter and pray for your battery, nor keep on choking and choking, then you know you've got what you want. And they don't have to tell you any more about Conoco Bronze than the way it starts, as long as you know it does." Continental Oil Company, Established 1875

New Berlin And Virginia Advance In District Tournament Here

Roodhouse Wins In Rally; Greenfield Takes First Match

Railroaders Have Ding-Dong Tossing Battle In First Tourney Game

Scores Last Night
Roodhouse, 37; Scottville, 36.
Greenfield, 35; Patterson, 18.

Greenfield, Feb. 26.—Roodhouse and Scottville put on a ding-dong basket tossing match here tonight as the Railroaders came from behind at the end of the first quarter to win its initial start in the Greenfield district tournament 37 to 36, and Greenfield marched into the semi-finals with a one-sided 35 to 18 victory over Patterson after being held to a tie in the first quarter.

Thus the stage was set for another rip-roaring Greene county cage battle Friday night when Greenfield and Roodhouse tie up in a semi-final Roodhouse dropped a one point decision to Greenfield not long ago on the Greenfield court. Hillview, one of the favorites to win the district tournament, will meet Girard and Modesto and Modesto and Palmyra tonight in the game on the Thursday night card.

Duty and Holmes led the Railroaders to their victory by scoring 29 points between them. Bilger, Scottville forward, equalled the high point mark for the evening with 16 points. Scottville led at the end of the first quarter 11-10, but Roodhouse worked the margin in its favor in the second period, which closed 17-16. They leaped out in front in the third quarter 29-21, but lost a point during Scottville's closing rally.

Patterson held Greenfield to a 6 all tie at the end of the first period, but the home team doubled the score at the end of the half, and kept it that way up to the finish.

Joe Cronin Says Red Sox Will Win

Orlando, Fla., Feb. 26.—(AP)—Manager Joe Cronin, generally cautious in his public pronouncements, was on record today with a prediction his Boston Red Sox would win the American League baseball pennant.

While visiting his father-in-law, Owner Clark Griffith of the Washington club, and looking over his former charges, Cronin told newsmen he figured Boston had the power and all-around strength this season to nose out the defending champions from Detroit.

"Unless Al Simmons makes a mighty difference in the Tigers, the Red Sox will win," he said.

Cronin thinks that with the acquisition of Jimmy Fox, Eric McNair, Roger Cramer and Johnny Marcum, the Red Sox will be at least 12 games better than a year ago.

"A lot depends on Fritz Ostermiller," he explained. "Fritz is the south-paw who suffered a broken foot and lay last summer. We'll need him to round out a four-man pitching staff."

Cronin said he had reports Lefty Grove and Wes Ferrell were in "great shape and in counting on that pair to go just as well this year as in 1935."

Marum will round out the big four. Cronin feels that with a pennant-contending club, Marum may move into the 20-victories class.

Cronin hasn't decided where Bill Werber, last year's third baseman, will be used. "Werber will be on the club. He's too good a man to leave off. He may be back at third again," the manager said.

FRISCH PLEASED

Bradenton, Fla., Feb. 26.—(AP)—Manager Frankie Frisch all but had the 1936 National League pennant in the bag for the St. Louis Cardinals after watching his Redbirds go through a peppy workout today.

"I never saw a ball club so far advanced after such a short time," he said. "Say, we're hitting in great form already."

Frisch had only kind words for the performance of two rookies—Cap Clark, catcher-outfielder and Stunt Martin, outfielder.

Joe Medwick, slugging left fielder, won a club long hitting contest by batting out a 425-foot drive.

JOHNSON SIGNS

Tacoma, Wash., Feb. 26.—(AP)—Connie Mack had one less worry today—his recalcitrant outfielder, Bob Johnson, who hit 28 home runs last year, had demanded a raise in his salary reportedly $9,000 last year.

Kane And Grafton Win At Jerseyville

Kane Comes Back In Second Half To Win; Grafton Sets Fast Pace

Jerseyville, Feb. 26.—Kane came from behind at the end of the first half to beat Brighton 41-31 and Grafton set a sizzling pace which Eldred was unable to match here tonight in the opening games of the Jerseyville district tournament.

Shipman and Kampsville will open the Thursday night program, and Chesterfield and Bunker Hill will meet in the final game of the second night's play.

Kane trailed at the end of the first half 18 to 15, but swept into the lead in the third quarter and went on to win, with Pettin tossing in 19 points and Atchison 16.

Pittenger led Grafton's 15 to 36 flight over Eldred in a wide open scoring scramble, but the issue was not certain until the third quarter, when Grafton pitched in 17 points while holding Eldred to two points.

Wants Barney Ross To Defend Title

Chicago, Feb. 26.—(AP)—World welterweight champion Barney Ross received an offer of $40,000 today to defend his title in Sydney, Australia, this spring, and if the ante is upped to $50,000, probably will accept it.

Sam Pian, one of the titleholder's co-managers, displayed a cable from Jack Munro, clubmaker for the National Boxing Club at Sydney, offering a guarantee of $40,000 and a option of 40 percent of the gross gate receipts, for Ross to make a title fight against an opponent to be selected.

Ross, already in training, will make his next start against Gordon Wallace of Vancouver, Canadian welterweight titleholder, March 11 at Vancouver.

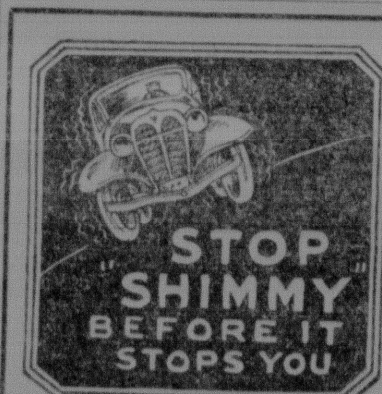

BOSTWICK SAILS

New York.—(AP)—George H. (Pete) Bostwick sailed today for England with but one aim to win the Grand National Steeplechase at Aintree, March 27.

Mounted on his seven-year old Irish-bred gelding, Castle Irwell, the 26-year old amateur jockey and polo player will seek to succeed where he failed with the same horse last year and with John Hay Whitney's Dusty Foot in 1933.

NOT INTERESTED

Tucson, Ariz.—(AP)—Hank Leibler, "Flying Dutchman" of the New York Giants, turned a cold shoulder today to the team that paid him $8,000 last season and prepared to become baseball coach at the University of Arizona.

It appears that there may be some sort of a cloud over Virginia high school basketball. Although the Red-Heads did ring up two victories over Bears-

In fact, a mathematician would have a little trouble in figuring out just who should wear the crown. Chandler and Ashland both won from Virginia last week, but split even with the Red-Heads in their home and home series.

But there isn't anyone in Virginia who isn't convinced that his high school team isn't the county champion. And undoubtedly the home town rooters have a lot to be glad about.

There's one basketball fan who is ready to dispute Bud Lane's claim that the 1922 J. H. S. basketball team was one of the greatest assembled. He claims that the team of about 1924 or 25 was just as good, if not better.

On that team were the present law firm of W. T. Wilson and Dave Lander, who played forwards at that time, and Roy Conklin, a forward. John Norris, center, Hugh Osborne and Ken Curtis.

According to this fan's memory, that team won 27 out of 30 games, winning the district tournament and then losing in the first game at the Pana sectional to Quincy by a one point margin. This led also insists that there was quite a bit of debate about the game, because Jacksonville claimed the ball left a player's hands and was on its way toward scoring the winning goal when the gun ended the game. Officials ruled otherwise.

Winchester high is going to get its chance to work out on the I. S. D. court this afternoon. Coach Burns is permitting them to use the court from 6:15 until 6:45, when the Tigers have to begin getting the place ready for the second round of tournament games.

Dan Cloud has issued instructions and a time schedule for the regional tournament which gets underway next week. The time schedule is as follows:

Wednesday—7:30 p. m.—Auburn vs. I. S. D.
Thursday—7:30 p. m.—Murrayville vs. District Winner.

We've seen several of the ice-cream and candy bar hucksters get a huge turn-over a couple times this year. Ball players warming up, and rebounding basketballs have done the turning over.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Altman of Pittsfield were among visitors in the city yesterday.

Pleasant Hill, Atlas, New Canton Win At Griggsville Meet

Atlas' Victory Over Neighbor Provides Highlight Of Opening Games

Griggsville, Feb. 26.—Atlas' 28 to 22 victory over its neighbor, Rockport, provided the highlight of the opening round of the Griggsville district tournament here tonight as Pleasant Hill and New Canton romped over their opponents for preliminary victories.

Atlas will come back Thursday night to meet Milton, the bye team of the nine team draw assigned here, while Griggsville and New Salem will meet in the other game of a double header.

Both New Canton and Pleasant Hill looked powerful in their first games. New Canton winning from Baylis 43 to 18, while Pleasant Hill was galloping over Kinderhook 44 to 15.

Woodson Furnishes Red-Heads A Bit of Scare as Tiniest Entry Puts on Warm Tossing lon expected by Friday night at least, from this quarter. In the meantime, Bluffs and Pleasant Plains will tangle for one of the places in the semifinal round, and Franklin and Chapin will meet in the other game tonight. Both Bluffs and Franklin, favored to win, will be on somewhat of a spot, because this tournament has given indications of providing a few upsets.

Fred Leeper tossed a lot of fears into the Virginia camp when he flipped in a couple baskets just before the end of the first half to leave Woodson trailing only a single point. The Red-Heads, better in their floor work and faster on their feet, worked up a neat little lead in the third quarter, but again Leeper shot it away. Woodson lost Irlam, the regular center, in the third quarter, and at the same time most of their hopes to beat the Red-Heads. Almost immediately Virginia picked up another lead.

Leeper Gets 14 Points
Leeper tossed in 14 points with some wicked shooting, while Virginia's scoring was well divided. Virginia showed an aggressive, well built team, with a lot of speed, one that, if it is able to get by New Berlin's speedsters, should cause a lot of trouble in the regional tournament.

Al Stambaugh was the high gunner for the Red-Heads, popping in nine points with some fine tossing around the cage. Murray, another tall youngster, collected eight points and Newberry seven to top the parade. Virginia's bristling attack, well aimed and filled with speed, had a little trouble getting accustomed to the large I.S.D. court, several passes going wrong early in the game. The Red-Heads were not averse to using long looping passes, almost the length of the court, on occasions when the Woodson defense left men open under the basket.

Alley made a serious mistake after getting off to a startling lead in the first few minutes against New Berlin, leaving John Stapleton run loose. John was too fast for the Alley lads, streaking down the court to take passes for short lay-in shots when New Berlin began firing long passes. Stapleton dropped in 15 points to tie with Lloyd Knepler, both of the boys losing in most of their points from near the basket.

Alley surprised themselves when they got the ball on the opening tip-off, and missed a set-up, but they were still a bit more surprised when they got a two point lead. They lost it, and then went back in front 5-4, lost it again and tied the count up at seven all, and then fell behind 9-7 at the end of the quarter.

That marked the beginning of the end of the Red Devils, for New Berlin uncorked its quick breaks to get the ball into the basket before the Demons got set. The Pretzels hustled out to a 21 to 8 lead at the end of the first half, and a 30 to 10 margin at the end of the third period. They finished up with a 42 to 15 victory.

Famous Scenes Enacted by Student Cast, Opening with Columbus

"Pages From the Story of Our Country" formed the theme of the program presented Tuesday at the Junior High School Assembly, sponsored by Section 2, with Mary Margaret Lair, class president, introducing the program and Susie Abbott as reader.

The story begins more than four hundred years ago. "Our country was then a broad, beautiful land, waving forests, wide plains, scattered with tribes of red men." The story took the audience on a journey to the long ago, in a strange, new wonderful world.

The Episodes began with that of Columbus, (Dale Jackson), the crew and Indians. The second number was the presentation of Jamestown in 1607. Captain John Smith, an outstanding figure, John Smith, (Billy Plunk), Pocahontas, (Marian Parks), Indians—Powhatan (Billy Randall), Braves (Bill Ator and Roy Webb).

"The Arrival of Young Women" marked the third episode. Dorothy McPherson represented the Young Women. The second part was the "First Representative Assembly in America."

"The Pilgrims Landing at Plymouth Rock" made the setting of the Fourth period, with Pilgrims, (Dale Jackson, Bill Ator, Melvin Saville, Richard Shewmaker, Roberta Canatasy, Virginia Richards, Ruby Newberry, Marion Parks).

The Boston Tea Party in its protestations was recalled by Rodney Preston, and the reading, "Paul Revere's Ride" was given by Doris Rob-

Prof. H. J. Stratton of Illinois college will make the first of a series of vocational talks at the local CCC camp this evening. Plans for this series were made yesterday morning at a meeting held in the Chamber of Commerce. Capt. F. G. Houlihan and Educational Director Raines Bohon attended the meeting and expressed themselves as being eager to have the boys at the camp hear the vocational talks.

The purpose of the new program is to acquaint the young men with various vocations, so they may be able to find employment in a chosen field when they return to civilian life. Business men of the city will address the boys from time to time during the coming weeks.

Others attending the meeting yesterday were R. E. Welch, Secretary A. D. Hermann of the YMCA, and Fred Darr, county recreational director for WPA. The talks will follow the evening mess at the camp and will be informal in nature.

Centenary Church Notes

The Knights of Pythias and the Pythian Sisters were the special guests of Centenary at the services Sunday morning. A fine audience was present to take part in the worship and Rev. M. M. Blair brought a most helpful and inspiring message.

"The Power of a Great Example" was the subject; John 13-15, "I have given you an example," the text. A. C. Metcalf sang "Abide With Me" as a solo, with his usual beautiful interpretation.

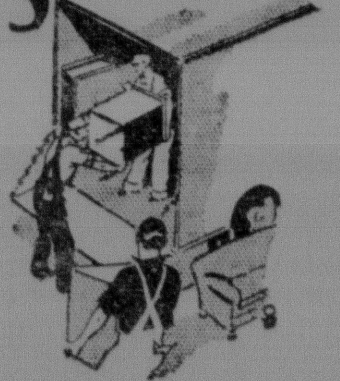

Centenary's members and friends are asked to observe the Day of Prayer at Westminster on Friday.

Wednesday at 7:30 p.m., the regular spiritual enrichment service. If it is possible to do so, be in this worship.

Gifts are still coming in on the coal collection. The extreme cold weather has cut the regular collections heavily. An appeal is made to give as liberally as is possible to our collections so that our bills may be met. We have passed through trying days and they call for sacrifice.

Our weekly Electric Cooking School will be held Today at 2 p. m., 2nd floor, Illinois Power and Light Bldg. Come.

Mrs. Harriett Tyrrell Brings
Report of Convention of Teacher Placement

Mrs. Harriett Tyrrell, director of MacMurray College Appointments Bureau, has returned from attending the National Institutional Teacher Placement Association conference held in St. Louis Feb. 22-23, at the Claridge hotel. Mrs. Tyrrell was accompanied to St. Louis by Miss Lillian Groves of Mount Vernon.

Practically every state in the Union was represented at the conference which was the second annual convention held by the association. The Saturday morning address was given by H. H. Kirk, superintendent of public schools, Fargo, North Dakota and the discussion was led by O. W. Snarr, director of student teaching, State Teachers College, Mankato, Minnesota. The topic for discussion was "The Superintendent's Viewpoint."

Henry Klonow, chief, Teachers' Division, Pennsylvania State Department of Public Instruction, Harrisburg, spoke upon "The Viewpoint of the Teacher Placement Division of a State Department of Education."

The attendance was the most representative of all the conferences, since leaders were present from southern California, Oregon, Georgia, and New York, showing the wide scope of interest.

A luncheon was held in the ballroom mezzanine floor of the Claridge hotel.

Raymond Crum Gets U. of I. Scholarship

Illinois College Senior is Selected for Honor and Valuable Award

Raymond Crum, a senior at Illinois College, is the winner of the Illinois College Graduate Scholarship at the University of Illinois next year, as announced by the faculty. Mr. Crum, who will graduate here in June was recommended for the honor by a special committee which carries with it many privileges.

The scholarship, which is awarded to an outstanding senior each year, carries with it freedom from all University fees. In addition, Crum will be enabled to apply for an additional scholarship which carries a stipend of $300 for one year.

Crum, a member of Phi Alpha, has regularly been one of those on the straight A list, and his excellent scholastic record since his arrival at I.C. last year enabled him to lead the field of contenders for the scholarship. His advanced work at the University will be in the Department of Mathematics. Fred Deatherage, last year's scholarship holder, is at present studying in the Department of Physics.

car were injured seriously and one may die.

The dead are: Mrs. Belle Jackson, 75, Carlinville. Mrs. Foreman Jackson, 50, Carlinville, daughter-in-law of the older woman.

Ray Reeves, 45, Roodhouse, driver of the sedan which was entirely demolished.

The injured are: Foreman Jackson, 55, fractured skull and broken jaw. Jackson was taken to his home today.

Miss Margaret Marie Jackson, 20, fractured skull and cuts on head. Her condition yesterday at the Macoupin County Hospital in Carlinville was reported as extremely critical.

The tragedy occurred as the Greene county people were returning from Panama, Ill., where they attended a funeral of a relative earlier in the day.

The accident occurred at 5:48 o'clock during a heavy rain shortly after dark. The light gasoline-powered northbound train was running about ten minutes late on its way from Centralia to Jacksonville. Trainmen said the crossing was clear and that warning signals were operating.

Foreman Jackson is believed to have been driving. The sedan was carried fifty feet north of the crossing by the force of the impact.

The auto's five passengers were thrown clear of the wreckage. Mrs. Foreman Jackson and Mrs. Belle Jackson were killed instantly. Reeves, suffering from internal injuries and skull fracture, died in the Heinz ambulance.

Foreman Jackson and his daughter were removed to the Macoupin hospital in the Heinz ambulance. While their condition was serious, physicians said they probably will recover.

The light engine of the motor train was disabled by the crash and delayed two hours while repairs were made to a wheel and pilot. The single coach carried several passengers but none was injured. The train was in charge of C. F. Hageman, conductor and John Hanrahan, motorman.

Remains of Mrs. Belle Jackson and Mrs. Foreman Jackson were removed to the Riefenberg funeral home in Carlinville. The body of Reeves was taken to the Heinz mortuary.

An inquest into the death of the two women who died at the scene of the crash will be held in Montgomery county. Coroner George Chase will hold a formal investigation in Litchfield. Dr. James McBrien, Macoupin county coroner, will investigate Reeves' death at an inquest.

Russian Singers Present Program

Community Concert Number Here Is Ensemble Of First Rank

The Russian Imperial Singers who presented a program of magnificent quality and dramatic fire last evening fulfilled the high expectations of the large audience at the high school auditorium.

This second number of the Jacksonville Community Concert Association was acclaimed an ensemble of first rank, with each member of this group equipped to form an indispensable part.

Stephen Slepoushkin, the baritone, a former member of the celebrated Moscow Musical Studio, is the leader of the organization; Michael Dido, first tenor, was the leading tenor with the "Chorus Sours"; Demetri Criona, second tenor, has appeared as a popular figure in the opera houses of Athens, Saloniki and Smyrna; Andrew Gregorieff, basso, helped to build the new famous choir of St. Nicholas Cathedral, New York; Terrihar Zragovsky, basso profundo, has one of the rarest voices in the world.

The program included sacred music, "Christmas Eve," traditional church song, "Of Thy Mystical Supper," sung in the Monastery of Kiev; classical music, "Night," from the "Cossack Prisoners"; "Song of the Cossack Prisoners," Russian Folk songs. It evoked strength, individuality and grotesquerie. Their music attained astonishing heights of boldness and energy, alternating with dazzling flashes of humor.

Their songs a times thunder along like Gogol's Troika, causing great admiration; at other times it is a meditative Russia, wistful, then again it is filled with the zest of life worth living—the enthusiasm of youth, love and poetry.

The concert of the Russian Imperial Singers was of stirring quality, colorful rhythms of Russian music of all types given by a distinguished ensemble, in brilliant native costume. Repeated applause brought the group back for many encores.

The entire program was as follows:

Stock Values Are Irregularly Lower

By Frank MacMillan
Associated Press Financial Writer
New York, Feb. 26.—(P)—A continued adjustment of values threaded its way through the stock market today with prices for the most part irregularly lower by a minor margin.

The volume of trading at 2,023,055 shares was slightly under the previous day, and the number of issues traded also was restricted. During the final hour, after the mold of the market had been formed, buying and selling slowed to a walk.

Utilities and merchandising stocks, along with numerous industrials and miscellaneous specialties, stood out against the general trend of the market. In the first two groups the gains were fractional, but there were scattered rises of more than two points among the others.

National Lead advanced 2 1/2 to 24 1/2 after directors submitted to stockholders a proposal to split the high priced common stock 10 for 1. Recent performance of split stocks indicates a general tendency to move higher when the per share price is reduced.

The Steels were mostly lower, both U. S. Steel and Bethlehem being off fractions to over a point, but Midland Steel Produce was traded actively at a 4-point advance on the day. Metal shares appeared mixed on one outstand piece of bullish news, a mark-up of $1 a ton in the price of lead.

Railroad started out with a steady upward trend, but that tendency was soon nipped and the close caught most of them off fractions and displaying strong resistance to selling.

Motors lost ground finally after taking a middle course which wavered irregularly.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks declined 4 of a point to 60.5 reflecting a slowing down after three days of reductions.

Russia's No. 1 Speed-up Man

Alexei Grigoryevich Stakhanov, shown here in a new picture, is the No. 1 man in Russia's campaign to speed up industrial production. Stakhanov, a miner, introduced specialization and speed-up piecework in his job, and as a result has become the idol of Soviet "shock workers," and the personification of the movement to step up production in all industries.

Wheat Prices Are Two Cents Higher

By John P. Boughan,
Associated Press Market Editor.
Chicago, Feb. 26.—(P)—Crop damage fears that took stronger grip of the wheat market today hoisted prices nearly 2 cents a bushel, and carried May up to $1.00.

Just before trading was ended, severe dust storms were reported in parts of Kansas, with visibility little better than zero. Indications of considerably colder weather tended further to suggest serious harm to crops, owing in particular to abruptness of the change from unseasonably high temperatures of late.

Wheat closed strong at the day's top level, 1 cent to 1 1/2 above yesterday's finish, May $1.00 1/2, July 91 1/2, corn 5-1 up, May 60 1/2-61, oats 1 1/2 advanced, and provisions unchanged to 12 cents higher.

A material increase of speculative buying of wheat was witnessed, and some traders were disposed to attribute this not only to crop fears but to the fact that foreign political developments were anything except reassuring. More or less significance was also attached to the circumstances that trade volume on the Winnipeg exchange showed broadening part of the business there consisting of purchases of wheat against sales of rye. Notice, too, was taken of reports of enlargement of family buying of domestic flour.

Official advisers said much damage to wheat is probable in the western third of Kansas, and that although wheat is showing in the eastern third it is badly frozen. Unofficial crop authorities emphasized that suddenness of temperature drops may seriously harm wheat, and in particular it was stressed that recent abnormal hot weather had unduly promoted plant growth and the activity of bacteria. Under such circumstances, a fall of the mercury, say from 50 above to 15 above within 24 hours, would imply likelihood of decided damage.

Hog Prices Ten To 25 Cents Off

Chicago, Feb. 26.—(P)—Declining meat prices were paralleled today by lower livestock quotations, a rally of cattle values being the only exception to the general downward trend.

Hogs finished 10 to 25 cents lower following a steady to 15 cents down opening. The early top was $10.25 and the best price in late trade was $10.10.

Fat lambs ruled 15 to 25 cents off, quality considered, with spots lower. The lamb top was $10. A load of desirable lightweight western ewes sold at $5.25 and scattered natives were quoted at $4.50 to $5.25.

Fed steers and yearlings, however, regained much of the week's earlier loss, ruling 25 cents higher and in instances more. Number loads sold 50 cents above the week's bottom level. The extreme top for steers was $11.60.

FOR FREE TEXT BOOKS

Carlinville, Ill.—(P)—Free text books for school children were proposed by former Lieut. Gov. John G. Oglesby of Elkhart in a speech opening his campaign for the Republican gubernatorial nomination.

Oglesby told an audience here last night that he favors the creation of a council of legislators to study state problems and recommend bills before the assembly holds its sessions.
